We are requesting specific brands because we find that many of the cheaper supplies do not work.

These supplies become part of our classroom community supply. Therefore, please do not label your supplies with your child's name unless otherwise stated. Please make sure your child understands.

The Little Red School House offers free school supplies to families who would like assistance. They will be at Komachin Middle School on August 17th. After accessing The Little Red School House, if you still need supplies, please contact our office after August 28th (596-6900). We have a limited amount of supplies that we would be happy to share.
